Food & Beverage Outlets

A Journey of Taste

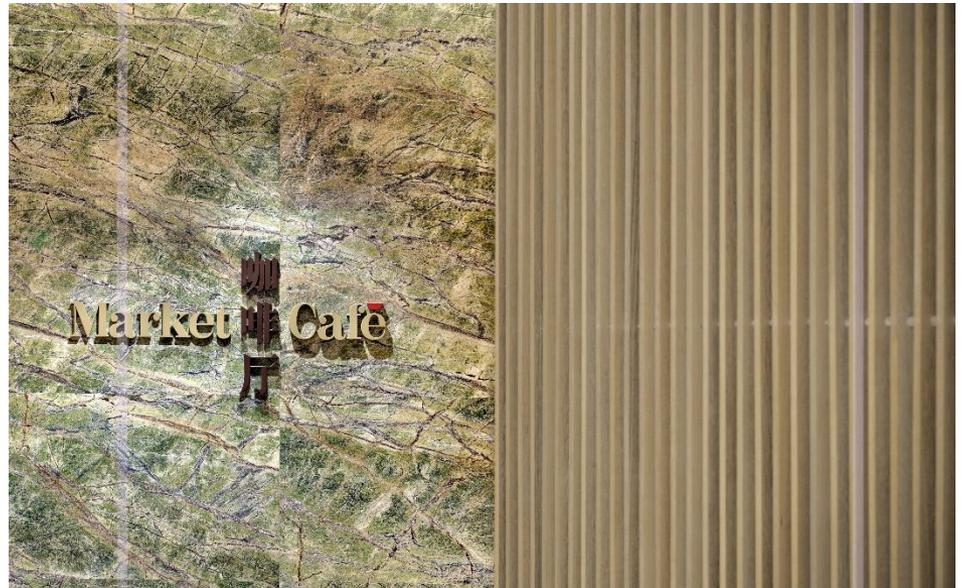

Embark on an extraordinary gastronomic journey where five tempting restaurants and bar create authentic connections with locally inspired delicacies as well as international fare.

Market Café

Dining In the Indoor Garden

Market Café, situated in the heart of the hotel on lower ground, is designed by the award winning architect Kengo Kuma, creating an extension from the outdoor park. With the concept of “A Picnic In The Garden”, guests can enjoy dining at the café surrounded with plants, high trees, water stream and gazebos with pitched louver roofs. Market Café showcases four expansive open-island kitchens, allowing both personal and interactive connection between chef and guest through live cooking. An extensive wine selection is available to enhance the dining experience.

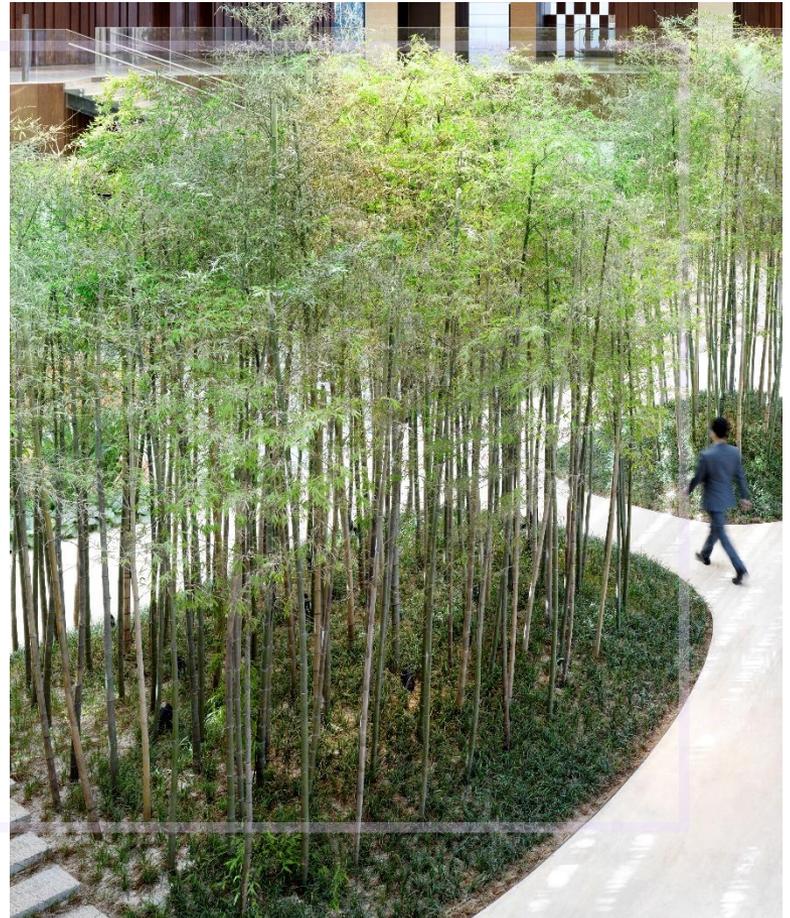

The Lounge

Urban Sanctuary with Natural Sense of Arrival

Inspired by rice terraced fields, The Lounge is formed as stepping terraces with gentle organic curves, incorporating the traditional landscape into modern architecture. Built around the entrance and atrium of the hotel, decorated with textured fabric sofas, walnut colored furniture and nature-patterned carpet, it creates a comfortable and relaxed urban sanctuary where guests can feel a natural sense of arrival. The open counter offers daily freshly baked croissants and bread in the morning, pastries, cakes, cookies and chocolates in the afternoon, pairing with specialty coffees and teas.

Hyatt Regency Beijing Wangjing | Presents

Cang Yue

A Journey to Exquisite Showcase of Northern and Southern Cuisines

Cang Yue showcases an exquisite array of authentic Northern and Southern Cuisines, creating a unique dining destination in the capital city. From the north to the south, Cang Yue presents you a unique culinary diary of seasonal specialties. Cang Yue's food selection can be seen as the chefs' personal culinary diaries, included with experiences, thoughts and feelings, so that even in the Imperial City can one experience an authentic taste of their hometown dishes.

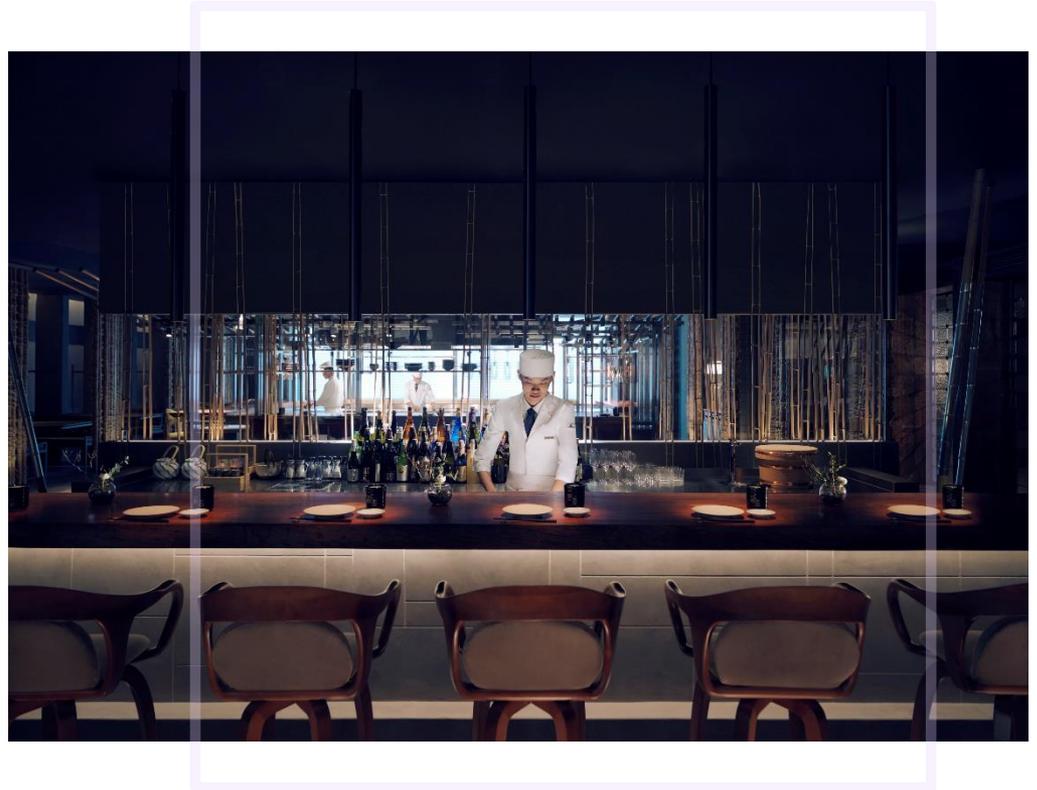

Shunpachi

A Flavor-filled Journey

Izakaya is best translated as ‘Japanese pub’ – a place deeply rooted in Japanese culture. Resonating with traditional Izakaya culture and inspired by the traditional Japanese festival “MATSURI”, Shunpachi shapes this authentic concept into an enjoyable and exciting gastronomic experience. A sophisticated menu of authentic dishes, echoing seasonal offerings, is crafted by our Chef, Mr. Kenji Maeda, with his dedication and attention to even the tiniest details.
