

Meet in a historical ambience

NH COLLECTION
HEIDELBERG

Location

Just a few minutes from important business centres such as the Stadthalle, the Print Media Center and the Heidelberg Congress Center, the NH Collection Heidelberg is located in the quiet Bergheim district. The route to the baroque Old Town with the castle and the famous Old Bridge, which is within walking distance, leads past small shops, trendy cafés and restaurants that are perfect to stop and spend time in. Or you can take the tram, which stops just 200 metres away, directly to the city centre, the numerous museums or the picturesque banks of the Neckar river.

The NH Collection Heidelberg combines history and modernity: built in 1753 as a brewery, the historic part of the hotel retains many of the original elements. In the course of the expansion, a unique link between tradition and contemporary architecture was created. The old and new buildings are connected by an impressive glass-roofed atrium.

The central train station can be reached on foot in a few minutes or via convenient public transport connections, and ample parking is available for guests arriving by car.

Our hotel is committed to sustainability and has been awarded ISO 14001 and Bioscore certification.

Experience the (hi)story

The special history of the NH Collection Heidelberg is what makes it an exceptional hotel that combines state-of-the-art facilities and maximum comfort with tradition and history like no other.

It's not only architectural details such as the solid wooden beams in the suites of the old building or brewery relics such as the large copper brew kettle in the Bräustüberl, which can be used as an event location for up to 68 people, that create an incomparable atmosphere. The many stories that the building has to tell and that have been reported about the location also give it its own special charm.

For example, in Heidelberg it's said that the ghost of the old master brewer Friedrich Kleinlein still haunts the hotel to this day. He's said to have been seen on many occasions, particularly on the cast-iron spiral staircase in the lobby, which once served as a secret staircase to the schnapps distillery.

Perhaps you'll also come across the old master brewer during your stay?
